

Apne Aap Women's Collective

the right to a better life for women and children in red light areas

AAWC

NEWSLETTER

OCTOBER-DECEMBER 2022

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE QUARTER UDAAN PROGRAM:

Clown act at YUVA event

Annual Picnic

Performance at Balmahaotsav

Dance Therapy

Diwali celebration with mothers

German classes

- One beneficiary won gold medal in Slogan Competition, Bio Rangoli and 3rd prize in best out of waste competition
- Girls who participated in Balmahaotsav won the following prizes:
 - two beneficiaries received 3rd prize in drawing competition
 - one beneficiary won 1st prize in essay competition
 - one beneficiary won 2nd prize in essay competition
 - one beneficiary won 3rd prize in speech competition
 - one beneficiary won 2nd prize in speech competition
- One beneficiary won 2 gold medals and a trophy in state level Karate Championship
- Mother and Girls diwali celebration in the center
- Girls attended diwali party organized by Madhu Mehta Foundation
- Session conducted by Museum on Wheels in regards to ancient material utilized to create puppets, clay art etc.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE QUARTER UDAAN PROGRAM:

Sound therapy session

Swinburne University students activity

Art Session

Birthday Celebration

Children's Day Celebration

Diya painting activity

- Diwali full week celebration and party with Udaan Beneficiaries along with guest from DWCD and CWC Smt. Shobha Shelar, Mr. Shyam Mistri sir and Mr. Mahadev Sawant
- Children's Day celebration in the center and Children's Day Fair conducted by DWCD attended by elder beneficiaries both KP and FR center at Priyadarshini Park, Malabar Hill
- Sound therapy session conducted by Ms. Rupali therapist for the girls and staff
- Visit by Swinburne University students and activities conducted about new technology, game and song/ Repairing of the computers
- German class ongoing and attended regularly by the girls.
- Annual Picnic conducted for Udaan Girls to Tikujini Wadi
- Participation of the girls in Bal Mahaotsav in David Sassoon organization by DWCD
- Clown act performed during Yuva organized by Hexaware Technologies.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE QUARTER UMEED PROGRAM:

Awareness during World AIDS Day

Annual Picnic

Voting card processing camp

Ration Distribution

- This quarter, 18 beneficiaries have completely left the profession and the red-light area, owing to AAWC's counselling, income generation initiatives, skill training and job placements.
- Provision of ration was made available to 400 women in the community in Kamathipura and Falkland Road Center.
- Sanitary Napkins distribution and Awareness on hygiene and use conducted with women.
- General health camp conducted with women beneficiaries.
- Sound Therapy session conducted for the women.
- Voting ID card processing camp conducted for the women beneficiaries in collaboration with BMC.
- Camp conducted on creating cards of women beneficiaries under the Mahatma Jyotibha Phule

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE QUARTER UMEED PROGRAM:

Health camp for the women

Weight measurement of the women

Awareness session in the community

Computer class for the women

- High court judge distributed voting id cards to the women beneficiaries in a program conducted by the collector's office in SNTD University
- 18 voter Id cards were made of women beneficiaries.
- 12 Aadhar cards were made of women beneficiaries.
- 14 bank accounts of the women beneficiaries are opened.
- 481 Medical referrals conducted.
- 10 women have been assisted with job placements in the last quarter.
- Exposure visit conducted of women to Savera NGO.
- Annual picnic conducted with women beneficiaries.

TO SUPPORT US IN OUR ONGOING ACTIVITIES OF
BOTH THE PROJECT KINDLY DONATE US AT:

danamojo
experience the magic of giving

TO KNOW MORE VISIT WEBSITE: www.aawc.in

EMAIL US AT: media@aawc.in

THANK YOU